More than 200 teaching and activity cards for this level.

2

What This Volume Is About

Volume 3 moves the child from isolated requests and early words toward a connected language system. Parents learn how to build vocabulary that is functional, flexible and meaningful - not simply memorised labels.

The volume develops receptive and expressive language, early grammar, sentence combinations, yes/no understanding and sequencing. Everyday moments become opportunities to help the child connect words with people, actions, locations, quantities and relationships.

Every volume includes the same orientation tools, so parents can understand the full sequence and begin at the level that matches the child today - not the level they hope to reach later.

VOLUME 3

Who Should Read This Volume?

- Your child requests, protests or greets consistently.
- The child has a growing bank of words, symbols or AAC selections but struggles to describe or categorise.
- Objects are not yet grouped by category or function.
- Adjectives, prepositions, pronouns and plurals are emerging or inconsistent.
- One- and two-step directions remain difficult.
- Words are present, but connected sentence use is limited.

4 What Problem This Volume Solves

- Moves the child beyond naming into meaningful language use.
- Connects vocabulary with grammar, concepts and real-life purposes.
- Prevents “flashcard knowledge” from remaining isolated from daily communication.
- Builds the bridge from single words to flexible sentence-level expression.

VOLUME 3

What You Learn From This Volume

- Teach functional requests, protests and rejections.
- Use greetings and turn-taking language.
- Build nouns, actions and descriptive vocabulary.
- Combine words into meaningful SVO structures.
- Understand deictic terms whose meaning shifts with context.
- Use negatives and early question forms.
- Use pronouns, plurals and early grammar more accurately.
- Expand mean length of utterance.
- Follow one- and two-step instructions.
- Improve yes/no comprehension.
- Understand prepositions and quantity words.
- Build sequencing and temporal logic.

Designed for practice inside ordinary family routines - not only at a therapy table.
